Introduction / はじめに

This guide shows an overview of Kawasemi Course. We hope that everyone, including the students who need help with the Japanese language, as well as the community, schools and parents may come together in order to grow progressively.

Kawasemi (Kingfisher) is the official bird of Koka city, whose nickname is “Flying diamond”. Certainly, this well describes our heartfelt desire for the students; namely, spreading their wings and flying away to go anywhere and achieve whatever they wish.

We hope that Kawasemi Course provides needed assistance for many students and parents by giving them both the opportunity to interact with Japanese language and culture!

Welcome to Kawasemi Course! / ようこそかわせみ教室へ

In Koka city, we are promoting town development with “All Koka” in order to realize a town to enjoy new affluence, feel happiness in daily life, in a wealth of nature, where everyone including those with roots in foreign countries have a sense of purpose in life and live comfortably and peacefully. In order to achieve this in education, all students shall recognize the coexistence of different nationalities and races, as well as accept distinct cultures, customs and values so that they can cultivate respect amongst themselves.

There are more than a few students in Koka city who need help learning Japanese and cannot get accustomed to daily life in Japan, or because they don't understand Japanese they have trouble coming to a mutual understanding with those around them, or they don't yet understand the rules of Japanese schools; all of these things expose the student to worry and stress at the beginning of their school life. To assist these students, Koka city launched an introductory Japanese educational program called Kawasemi Course in September, 2018 that helps foreign students learn about the Japanese language, culture and daily life at Japanese schools. And to further enhance instruction, we opened a new “Second Kawasemi Course” in May 2024.

We hope that many students begin their studies in Japan by studying at Kawasemi Course as a way to enable the smooth adaptation to Japanese school life.

It is our earnest desire that no one will be left behind and that as many foreign students as possible have a pleasant school life and keep on stepping toward their dreams on the basis of what they learned in Kawasemi Course. Hopefully, they will consider Koka city their irreplaceable “furusato” (hometown), and we hope from the bottom of our hearts that they will feel truly happy.
